Times they are a changing...

Entering North Adams State

September 7, 1969

North Adams State College
Class of 1973
Times They Are a Changing . . .

I'M A FRESHMAN TOO!!

Many of us remember hearing those words, four years ago when we entered NASC. They were spoken by the new college president, James Amsler. He was to join us on the road of a new beginning for all of us. While here in North Adams we saw an evolution of change. Not only in structure but also in concept. Education began to change. A new language came about. Open Classroom, Special Ed, Individual Instruction, Multi-Media
The idea of College changed. The size of the college doubled.
Boys are about to outnumber the girls, thanks to Business Administration. Social ideas have changed on campus.
Curfews and demerits are no longer exsistent. Open housing is a new idea spun up into a co-ed dorm. Off campus living for girls now seems natural though a few years ago it was unthinkable.

Changing Attitudes and growing minds have set forth a Brave New World.
While at North Adams we saw the campus get a face lift.
A new library that finally got chairs, lights, and BOOKS.
Classroom building that had blackboards that you could write on, mobile dorms, houses for students, buildings, construction, parking problems, more construction, a co-ed dorm and soon a student union building. And lets not forget the $8,000 Senate Office.
More changes have occured in our 4 years at NASC than in all of it's history combined:
In all the years that are to follow, none so brief will hold the multitude of change that we have seen past.

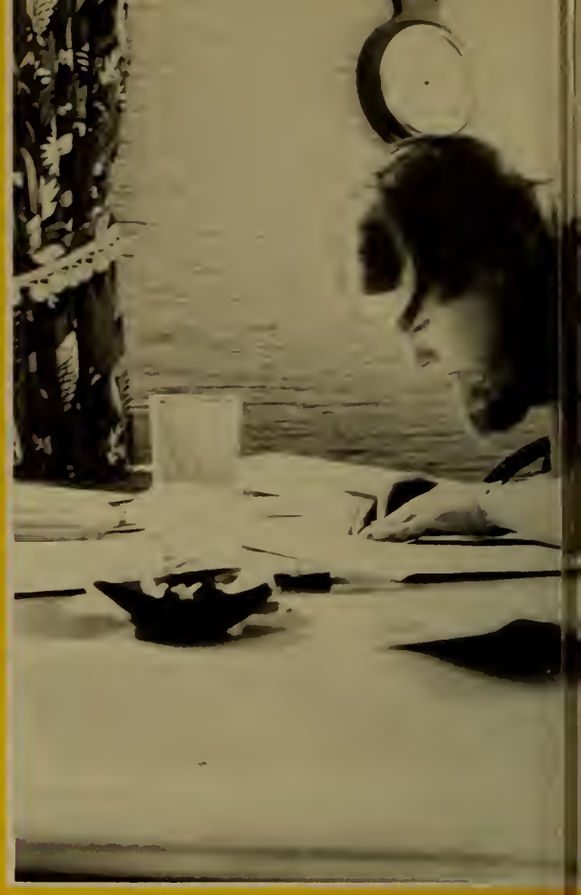
A Note of Interest

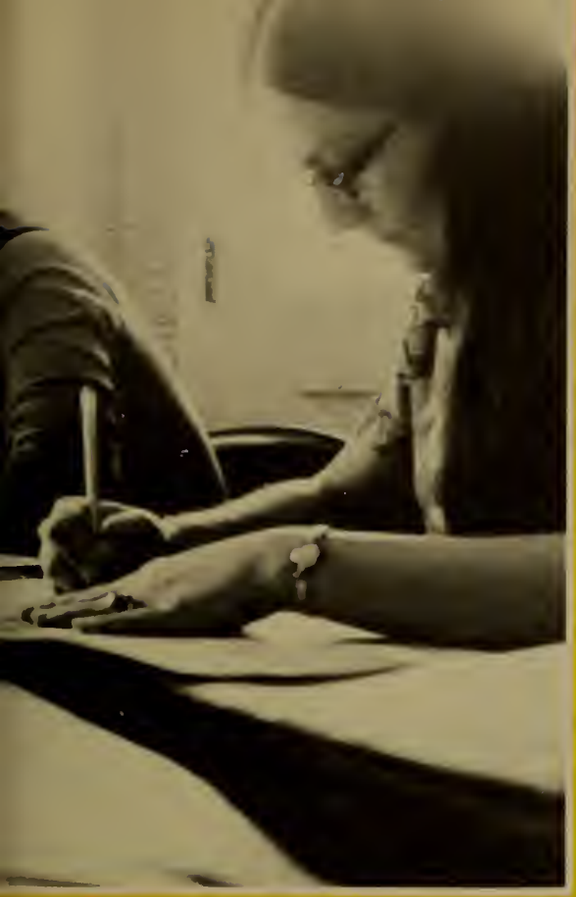


To All of You Who Have Patiently Awaited the Arrival of This Yearbook;

I know that a yearbook should be presented to the Seniors while they are Seniors and not many months after Commencement, but due to uncontrollable factors, lack of teamwork, and other forces, "Times, 1973 . . . " was unsuccessful. In May it was claimed a "Wipe-out", but a handful of us got together and put it all together. You may find many misspellings and people out of place, but please overlook these matter of trivia and think "Rome wasn't built in a day" and not by a handful of people either.

I would like to extend a few thanks to people along the way that helped make this all possible,

The 'Yearbook' That



those of you have waited, those of you who had your pictures taken and retaken and taken again, those of you who put up with 'the girl with the camera', DR. ALAN GOTTLIEB, who devoted much of his own time and effort into much of the photography of the yearbook, to all of you who helped put this together, Bing-Bing, and Especially to PAT HUSSAR '74, for without her help none of this would ever have been made possible. I thank you all.

I do hope "Times They Are A Changing . . . 1973," will help you to remember special memories of your years here at NASC in the years of life that are to follow.
